deploring the rejection of Mr. Policek, and said he was not only eminently fitted for the place, but had the endorsement of the entire bar of the county, one-half of the school trustees, and was tha choice of a majority of the people of the county.

Air Policek is a fine lawyer, and was for sixteen years the Commonwealth's Attorney of his county. He was a leader in the House at the session of 1859-1800, and in 1896 was the Democratic elector for the Ninth Congressional District on the Bryan ticket. Not only so, but he was for some years the superintendent of schools for Pulaski, and filled the office to the utmost satisfaction to the people.
